Achievements

- Robin has been teaching at ICS since 2004 and currently teaches 5th grade Religion and 5th through 8th grade Mathematics. She is the coordinator of ICS Destination Imagination and loves coaching in this international, problem-solving, STEM based, team competition.
- Robin graduated as the co-valedictorian from Seton Hall University with a major in Communications and a minor in Psychology. Robin worked for WSOU radio station, WNBC, and Kingworld Productions. While tutoring the men's SHU basketball players, she discovered her love for teaching and obtained her Masters Degree in Elementary Education. She is highly qualified in Middle School Mathematics.

Personal

- Robin is very proud of her two boys who are both graduates from ICS. Alex is currently a senior in high school and was accepted into the competitive honors program at Seton Hall University where he will study Political Science. Nicky is a freshman in high school and strives to pursue a career in art. They live in beautiful White Township with their dog Cannoli.
- Robin is honored to be the editor of her dad's first novel, The Last Jump: A Novel of World War II. Helping him fulfill his dream is one of her greatest accomplishments. She is excited to spend the summer editing his second novel with a working title Final Flag: Fold of Honor.

"I love spending time with my extended family, especially Sunday's traditional Italian family dinner. I am very blessed to be so close to my parents who are both cancer survivors. I also enjoy reading, hiking and watching the New York Islanders."
