

October 2016

Achievements

- Elizabeth received a Bachelor of Science degree in Elementary Education from Russell Sage College in Troy, New York where she was also recognized with the American Association of University Women Award for the most promising student in the field of elementary education. She earned a Master's Degree in Developmental Reading from The State University of Albany, also in New York.
- Elizabeth authored an article in the NCTM Teaching Children Mathematics magazine entitled, "Sorting and Patterning in Kindergarten: From Activities to Assessment". Mrs. Ziemba was a Non-Public School Teacher of the Year Finalist - NJ Council for American Private Education (NJCAPE). She began her first teaching assignment where she student taught, at The Albany Academy for Boys while she went to graduate school full time at night.
- She taught third grade at The Peck School followed by teaching kindergarten at Clinton Public School.
- After having lived in London, England where she volunteered at the American School, Elizabeth took great pride in starting up the kindergarten program at Immaculate Conception School in 2000.

Elizabeth Ziemba

Personal

- The Ziemba's are the proud parents of four beautiful and successful children, all who attended Immaculate Conception School. Kaileigh is a 4th grade teacher with her Master's Degree in Reading. Sarah is finishing up her Nursing Degree, Ethan is a Bio/Chem major at Clark University and Sydney is a freshman at Drew University.
- Elizabeth has spent many hours coaching basketball in the ICC CYO basketball program and still enjoys shooting some hoops herself. In her spare time.
- Elizabeth enjoys cooking, reading, long walks and hanging out with her family.

